Dear Parents,

The Prime Minister has announced that from Friday all UK schools will be made to close except for looking after the children of keyworkers. Whilst it was expected, the time frame is quicker than anticipated. I will write to all parents and staff to outline the next steps and arrangements for all pupils when we receive details and guidance from the Government, including who is defined as a keyworker.

I understand that this is a worrying time, and we have all been asked to make changes in our lives. With this in mind, please bear with us while the school digests the news and guidance. A further letter will be sent out tomorrow with as many details as we know.

Kind Regards

Mr Russell.
